Both Are Decidedly Out of the Ordinary
The remarkable feature of this Gate-Leg Table is its extreme compactness when folded. Though it measures 28 by 30 inches when open—just the right size for most purposes—it folds to a width of only 6 1/4 inches.
Furthermore, it is of most excellent construction in every detail, of solid mahogany throughout.
The Telephone Set, also of Solid Mahogany, differs from the usual in that it has a chair instead of a stool.
This fits under the Stand. There is a convenient shelf for the telephone book. In both instances the prices are notably low.
